

MINOR

MUSIC

18 credits

Develop your musical abilities in piano, voice, or orchestral instruments.

The Music Minor (18 credits) is available to any UMass Dartmouth student who passes an audition with the Department of Music.

The Minor is designed to allow students to develop their musical knowledge and abilities through an individualized program of study designed with a music faculty advisor and approved by the department chair.

Required Courses

18 credits, selected from at least two areas (for example performance and theory; history and theory; music business and history), and with the approval of both the music department chair and the student's music faculty advisor. At least nine (9) credits must be taken at the 300 level or above.
